

Personal and Family Care

Taught by: Dennis Bickers

Registration Deadline: March 15, 2010

This course is offered by the Church Leadership Institute

Nature and Purpose of the Course:

This course is intended to assist students maintain balance in their personal, professional, and family lives. The course will explore the challenges related to ministry today, time management, and goal setting. We will look at how ministry impacts the family of the minister and ways the minister can ensure a healthy family. The course will also examine the importance of continuing education and personal growth. In addition to the reading assignments, we will explore information gathered by the instructor from a survey he conducted in 2004 of bi-vocational ministers in the ABC/USA.

Course Information

Title: C205 Personal and Family Care

Instructor: Dennis Bickers

Dates: March 27, April 10, April 24 and May 8

Where: FBC Greenwood

Cost: $120.00 per person

(Includes: instructor, course notebook, 4 lunches and other miscellaneous expenses)

Course Objectives:

1. Have a better understanding of the significant stresses that exist in ministry today.
2. Understand the importance of vision, priorities, and goal setting and how to set goals in all aspects of their lives.
3. Identify time wasters that currently exist in their lives.
4. Identify needs that may not be met in their families and how to respond to those needs.
5. Understand the importance of continuing education and how one can find the time and resources to attend Christian Education events.

The registration form and contact information for further inquiries are provided on the back of this sheet.

